J. A. W. Smith, of Atlanta, Ga., president of the Birmingham-Watkins & Persons Mica Co., committed suicide there last week.

Those who have made a critical examination of the fruit buds say the freezes of last week did not kill them. Some claim that the cold weather will be a benefit rather than a disadvantage to the fruit.

Again we rise to remark that the man who gets mad at what the newspapers say about him should return thanks three times a day for what the newspapers know about him and suppress. — Maysville Leader.

One of the most entertaining lecturers who has visited our city was here Monday evening at the auditorium—Louis J. Beauchamp—a large audience greeted him and enjoyed his presence.

The real friend of a newspaper is the man who stops the reporter on the street and gives him any little bit of local news that he thinks might be of interest to the readers of the paper. Remember that a newspaper man never gets in too great a hurry to stop and jot down a news item, and remember that he don't think you are seeking notoriety when you tell him of a personal concerning you or your family.

Will some one through the "Record-Press," tell why it is that the Fire Insurance rates in Kentucky are so enormously high as compared with the rates in other states. While the Commissioner's report for Kentucky shows that during the years of 1909 and 1910, the Fire Insurance Companies doing business in Kentucky collected in premiums

$9,380,944 and paid out in losses only $4,555,892 showing a profit of $4,825,052. Will some one tell us why and enlighten a subscriber.

STURGIS YOUTH

Instantly Killed

By Electric Wire.

At 7 o'clock this morning Will Kuykendall, a promising and popular employe of the Electric Light Co., was instantly killed by contact with two live electric wires while he and Otis Hoover were at work in the attic wiring the house recently bought by Geo. B. Simpson in Main Street.

Young Kuykendall had grasped the two wires to see whether the current, the ordinary house light voltage of 110 was on, not being aware that by mistake he and Hoover had connected the wires with the heavy street light current of 2200 power. The shock was like a lightning stroke and he was probably dead the instant it struck him, and it required a strong blow on the wires with a club to release his hands from the deadly current.

Physicians were summoned, but he was past human aid, and the body was removed to the home of his stricken mother, Mrs. Sallie Kuykendall, in Washington street.

Young Kuykendall was twenty-one years of age and besides his mother leaves two brothers and three sisters.

He had many friends and the whole community was shocked at his sudden and horrible death.

U. S. A. PRESBYTERY

Various Churches Well Represented And Interesting Sessions Were Held.

A splendid body of Christian men and women are within our gates in attendance at the Presbytery of Princeton of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A., which convened here Tuesday evening. The churches in this Presbytery are well represented and the crowd in attendance is said to be unusually large. Rev. A. J. Thomson, of Kuttawa, was chosen moderator.

The following ministers are present: J. W. Hudiburg, Mayfield; E. B. Landis, Paducah; A. J. Thomson, Kuttawa; R. H. Anthony, Princeton; J. N. Andre, Fredonia; D. M. Harrison, Madisonville; W. M. White, Providence; S. G. McCluny, Osceola, Mo.; W. J. Darby, D. D., Evansville, Ind.

The various churches are represented by the following delegates: J. J. Sherrill, Mayfield; Jno. G. Miller, Paducah; H. M. Barnes, Water Valley; A. M. Wallis, Hopkinsville; W. H. Jones, Princeton; C. A. Wilson, Bethlehem; J. E. Crider, Fredonia; S. H. Mathews, Frances, J. E. Baird, Crayne; C. R. Newcom, Marion; J. T. Alexander, Madisonville; W. L. Baker, Providence; L. B. Nichols, Shiloh; John E. Nunn, Sturgis.

The Ladies Presbyterian Missionary Society have a splendid representation—twenty-six in all. The ladies' meetings have been held at the Baptist church, have been well attended and full of enthusiasm. Quite a number of visitors have been attending these meetings.

Messrs. C. T. Wallace, Kenneth Davis and Harry Cully represented the Christian Endeavor from Sturgis; J. McCaslin, D. W. Deboe, W. H. Ordway and wife, from Crayne, and there were others from various churches.

The commissioners to the next General Assembly are Rev. D. M. Harrison, of Madisonville, and Hon. John G. Miller, of Paducah. W. L. Baker, Jr., of this city, was nominated to represent the General Assembly at Atlanta City, and Mr. Miller was elected by a majority of only one vote over Mr. Baker, although Mr. Miller is a prominent lawyer of Paducah and is well known all over the Presbytery, while Mr. Baker, with his extreme modesty, is known to only a few of the churches.

The next meeting of Presbytery will held at Bethlehem church, at Crider, Caldwell Co. The ladies representing the Women's Missionary Societies were Mrs. Ashley Holoman, president of the Presbyterian Society, Mrs. J. T. Alexander and Mrs. D. M. Harrison, from Madisonville; Mrs. A. M. Wallis, Mrs. Lander, Misses Bettie Stevenson and Kelly, from Hopkinsville; Mrs. H. B. Barnes, from Water Valley; Miss Bessie Hovenden, from Paducah; Mrs. J. N. Andre, of Fredonia; Mrs. Castleberry, of Princeton; Miss Grace Deboe, of Crayne; Misses Sallie Crider and Elvie Hill, of Chapel Hill; Mrs.

J. F. Price, of Marion; Mrs. Belle Price, of Lisman; Mrs. T. M. Hurst and H. A. Rife, of Sturgis; Masters J. T. Alexander, of Madisonville, and H. A. Rife, of Sturgis, entertained the ladies' meetings with solos.

Mrs. D. F. Dieflenderfer, of New York City, Secretary of the Board of Missions, delivered an interesting address Wednesday night on the subject of Mormonism and its relation to our Christian and national life. At this meeting Mrs. J. T. Alexander and sister, Miss Nellie Guess, charmed the audience with a beautiful song.

There are quite a number of visitors in attendance whose names the Enterprise failed to get. The Presbytery will close tonight with a sermon by Rev. R. H. Anthony, of Princeton—Providence Enterprise.

Class Social And Banquet.

On Friday night last the Men's Class, conducted under the auspices of Sunday School of the Methodist church by Mr. C. S. Nunn, assisted by Mr. John A. Moore, held a "Social," following a Sumptuous Banquet which was served in the Dining Room of the New Marion Hotel.

After the cloth had been removed the Toastmaster explained the cause of absence of several speakers, and then called upon Dr. Mather, Pastor of the church, who delivered an address of some length upon the advantages of church fraternity, in its social, intellectual, and moral aspects, calling upon illustrations many of the episodes connected with his experience in church life and organization. Dr. Mather's reminiscences were greatly enjoyed, as were also the speeches and "remarks" of others who were present, and the music of the Methodist Orchestra contributed largely to the enjoyment of the evening.

The banquet table was "a thing of beauty and a joy" as long as the good things to eat were brought in.

The menu was well gotten up and consisted of the following delicacies, celery, pickles, crackers, oysters, soup, chicken with dressing, cold ham, cranberry sauce, hot rolls, asparagus salad with French dressing, pineapple sherbert, cake, fruits, nuts, tea, coffee, and milk.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Nunn, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Metz, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Obenchain, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Travis, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Walter McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. James Hicklin, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Haynes, and Dr. and Mrs. Mather. — Misses: Verna Pickens, Susie Boston, Madeline Jenkins, Myra Dixon, Elviah Pickens, Hazel Pollard, Bernice Driskill, and Mrs. H. A. Ramage. — Messrs: Coleman Foster, Jno. Moore, Claud Guess, Norman Henry, Allie Moore, Thomas Mather, Homer Moore, Ed Robinson, Guy Lamb, Maurie Boston and Maurie Nunn.

There will be preaching here next Sunday and also Sunday School in the afternoon. Prayer meeting every Saturday night. What is the matter with the older Christians who attended awhile and now absent? We would be glad to see many at prayer meeting again.

With best wishes to all, we will not write any more at this time.
